

human call

"Hey robot, come here."

The robot hears someone calling for help but cannot see the person and should proceed to further exploration.

footsteps

The robot hears footsteps but does not see anyone.

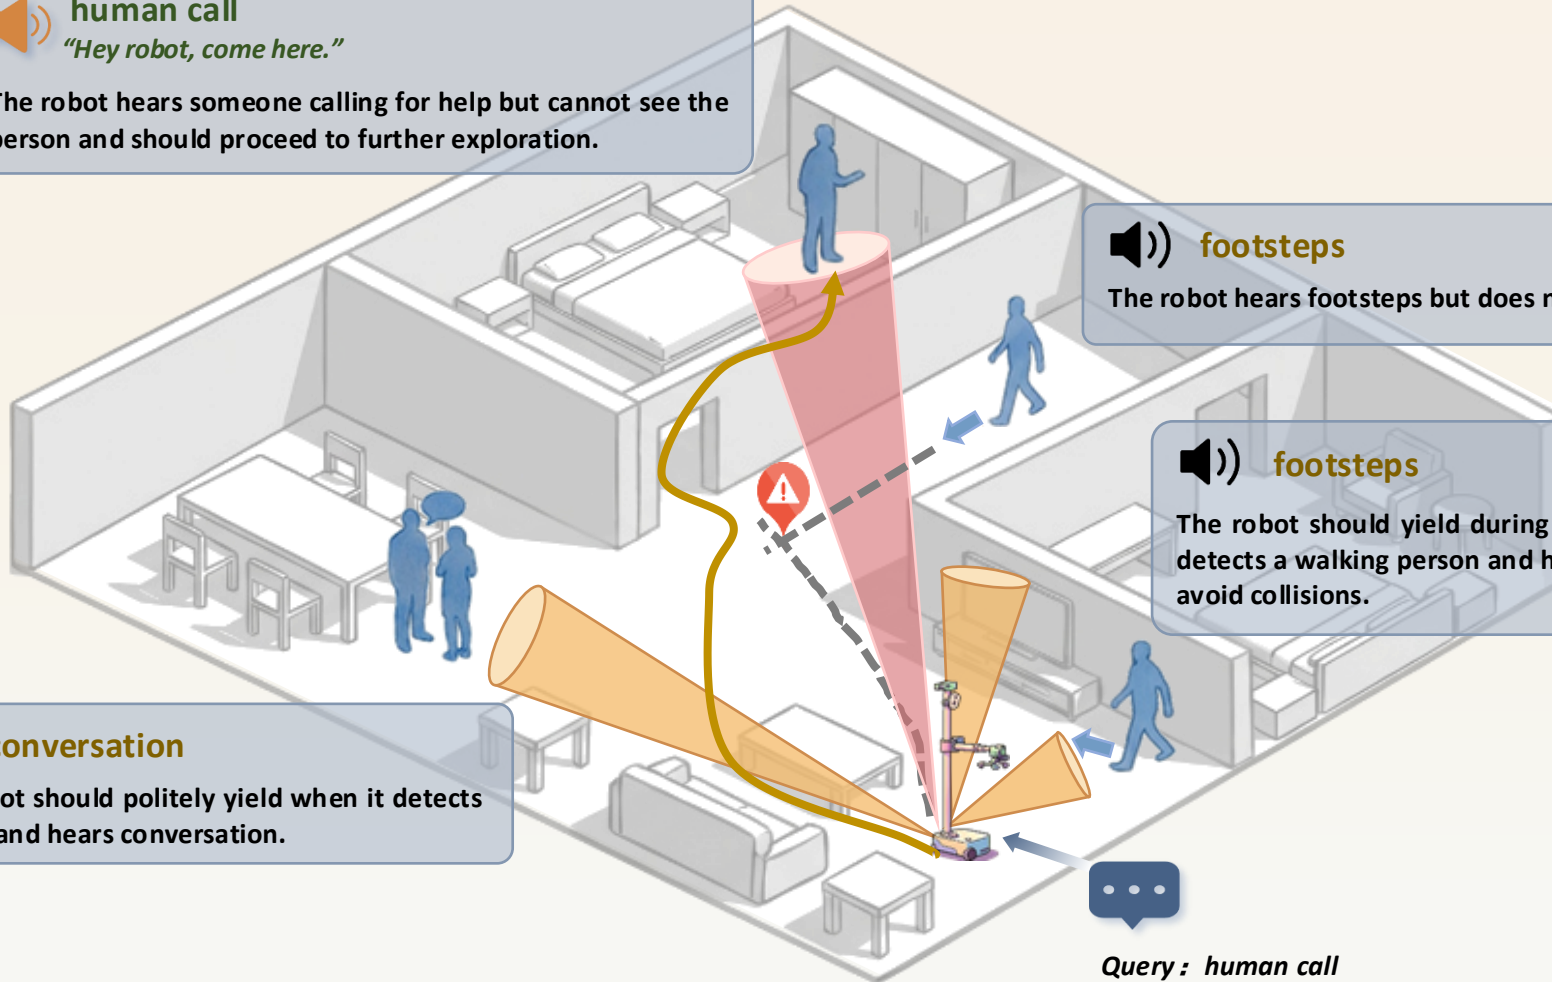

footsteps

The robot should yield during planning when it detects a walking person and hears footsteps, to avoid collisions.

conversation

The robot should politely yield when it detects people and hears conversation.

Query: human call